Good Citizens

Jay Launius

Immigration and citizenship are a hot topic in our country today. Why do many people want to come here and become a citizen of the United States? Is it for freedom, political asylum, or the opportunity for a better life? Currently, Christians have a dual citizenship. We are citizens of the earth while having our citizenship in heaven. (Philippians 3:21).

Unfortunately, as with any community or country, there are good citizens and not-so-good citizens. What does it take to be a good citizen in the kingdom of heaven while living here on earth? Here are a few of the characteristics Christians must have to be a good citizen:

• Respect. Respect leadership, others, and yourself (Heb. 13:17; 1 Peter 2:7; Phil. 2:3; 1 Cor. 3:16).

Compliance. Obey the laws and rules (John 14:15; 1 John 2:3; 1 Thes. 4:11; James 1:22).

Participation. Engage in the activities of the church (Rom. 12:10-13; 1 Cor. 15:58; Col 3:17; 2 Tim. 2:15; Heb. 10:24-25).

Stewardship: Protecting and caring for God's blessings (Luke 16; 2-13; 1 Cor. 4:1-2; 2 Cor. 9:6-7; 1 Pet. 4:10).

Responsibility. Being accountable for one's own actions (Rom. 4:12; Gal. 6:5,7; 1 Tim. 5:8).

Compassion. Showing compassion for one's neighbor (Matt. 9:36; 25:34-36; Luke 10:29-37; Rom. 15:1).

Integrity. Honest and trustworthy in one's personal dealings (Luke 3:12-13; Eph. 4:25; Col. 3:9-10; Titus 2:7).

Although this list is not conclusive, we must continually strive to develop and grow them into our character while diligently seeking God through faith (Hebrews 11:6).

A Nation Without God

Larry Fitzgerald

George Washington, just after he took office, wrote, "Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey his will, to be grateful for his benefits, and humbly implore his protection and favor..."

Abraham Lincoln once said, "It is the duty of nations, as well as of men, to own their dependence upon the overruling power of God and to recognize the sublime truth announced in the Holy Scriptures and proven by all history, that those nations only are blessed whose God is the Lord."

Woodrow Wilson said, "The Bible ... is the one supreme source of revelation of the meaning of life, the nature of God and spiritual nature and need of men. It is the only guide of life which really leads the spirit in the way of peace and salvation."

Ronald Reagan said: "Freedom prospers when religion is vibrant and the rule of law under God is acknowledged."

As a result of such leadership, over much of the past 200 years, this country has been known as a "Christian nation" because of its professed allegiance to God and his Word. But things are rapidly changing. "One nation under God" is a line in our pledge of allegiance, but we are becoming "a nation without God." Romans 1:24-32 describes in detail our society in the United States today. We are not only a nation of those who do immoral things, but "also approve those who practice them" (Romans 1:32).
