Peace of Mind

Larry Yarber

“And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master carest thou not that we perish? And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm” (Mark 4:37-39).

Many spend their entire time on earth in fear of the storms of life. Sometimes it is even said of them, “they have a troubled soul.” As our Lord calmed the Sea of Galilee, He alone can calm the soul of man and bring an end to his inner fears. As He faced the cross of Calvary, Jesus told His disciples, “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid ... If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father...” (John 14:27-28).

Jesus assured His disciples He would triumph over the crucifixion and His death should not scare or trouble them. All would be well with Him and with them in the midst of the storm.

Our Lord offers us this same assurance of peace. There is no temptation so great, but with His help, we can overcome it, “There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it” (1 Corinthians 10:13).

There is no need which He is not mindful of and which He is not able to supply, “Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you” (Matthew 6:31-33).

There is no anxiety that cannot be dealt with, “And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her” (Luke 10:41-42).

There is no foe who can conquer our soul, “And fear not them which kill the body but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell” (Matthew 10:28; also see and read Hebrews 13:5-6 and Romans 8:31). “Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me” (John 14:1).

Men are often troubled and tossed about by the storms of life because they have no sure anchor for their souls, “...we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus,” (Hebrews 6:18-20). Thus, when the storms of life come, their faith fails and their hearts are filled with fear. However, God pleads with all, “Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Casting all your cares on him; for he careth for you” (1 Peter 5:6-7). When we finally learn to do so, we will find that inner peace for which we all yearn, “And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:7).
