Influence of Jesus

Taken from House to House Heart to Heart

Historian Philip Schaff described Jesus' power in the following way:

“Jesus of Nazareth, without money and arms, conquered more millions than Alexander the Great, Caesar, Mohammed, and Napoleon; without science and learning, he shed more light on things human and divine than all philosophers and scholars combined; without the eloquence of school, he spoke such words of life as were never spoken before or since, and produced effects which lie beyond the reach of orator or poet; without writing a single line, he set more pens in motion, and furnished themes for more sermons, orations, discussions, learned volumes, works of art, and songs of praise than the whole army of great men of ancient and modern times.”

Roman governor Pliny the Younger in a letter to Emperor Trajan wrote that true Christians would refuse to deny Christ or worship the image of the Emperor even when threatened with torture and death. He said their fault was only that they met “on a fixed day before dawn and sang responsively a hymn to Christ as to a god, and to bind themselves . . . not to commit fraud, theft, or adultery, not to falsify their trust, nor to refuse to return a trust when called upon to do so.” This behavior so baffled the governor that he wrote the Emperor to get instructions for dealing with the Christians.

The steadfastness of Christians and their influence for Christ throughout the ages is summed up by Paul, “The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law” (Galatians 5:22–23).

The Power of Godliness

Harry Goff

There is a huge difference between the “form of godliness” and the “power of godliness” (2 Timothy 3:5). It has been said that the form of godliness is policy, but the power of godliness is honesty. The form of godliness is on the lips while the power of godliness is in the heart. Notice some qualities of godliness.

Godliness is to be more like Jesus. Are we willing to exercise self-denial, to give up evil habits, and to serve others? (Luke 9:23; Acts 1:1; 1 Peter 2:21–22).

Godliness is profitable for health. “The fear of the Lord prolongs days, but the years of the wicked will be shortened” (Proverbs 10:27). Many lives are shortened due to a worldly lifestyle. The “eat, drink, and be merry” attitude is not profitable for good health.

Godliness is profitable for one's reputation. Do we want a good reputation? If so, let us be godly (Philippians 4:8).

Godliness is profitable for the intellect. Godliness directs one away from a sinful life to a life of truth and holiness (Psalm 14:1; Romans 1:18–32; 12:1–2).
